Kaye/Bassman's Real Estate Practice serves client companies who develop, own, manage, operate or invest in commercial real estate. We have built a solid reputation and track record of successfully representing real estate firms ranging from the startup developer to the largest and most prominent Real Estate Developers, Real Estate Investment Trusts, and Property Owners throughout the United States.

For each and every executive search, our clients benefit from our depth of industry knowledge and market mastery while fulfilling their staffing needs. We apply our unique Client Focused Search™ approach, which allows us to connect our clients with some of the best Real Estate career-minded candidates in the industry. Our executive search process is highly flexible, designed to identify candidates that meet your unique requirements – whatever the size of your company, our Client Focused Search™ methodology is built to work for you.

Our goal with each search is to deliver true bottom-line value by identifying, attracting, landing and helping you retain the best career-minded professionals in your market area. This partner oriented mindset is what separates us from the more transactional and vendor firms. We look forward to working with you to determine the right technical and cultural match for your current and future needs.
