Education & Sports Leadership Recruiting

Our search consultants have a combined 35 years of experience in Education and Sports Leadership. Our practice is committed to creating long-term partnerships within both Secondary and Post-Secondary Education and Athletic Departments. Our success has allowed us to mature our process to efficiently identify ideal matches at all levels. Beyond our expertise in the world of recruitment, we also offer behavioral and cultural testing. This is available for both the candidate and the institution. We understand the sensitive nature and delicate balance necessary to find the right fit for the the community as well as the traditions of the institution.

Through the flexibility of our Client Focused Search® approach, which provides proper alignment of expectations based on the service level and urgency our client requires, and our Market Mastery model of proactively developing candidate relationships in core function disciplines ahead of need.
