Higher Education

Higher Education Recruiting

Kaye Bassman's Higher Education Practice has garnered a solid reputation in the education community. Our longstanding client and candidate relationships make us a highly sought after source for top tier academic talent in the area of administration, campus level leadership, campus based individual contributors, other academic support positions as well as corporate executives in education.

Due to our intimate knowledge and unique understanding of the academic marketplace, clients seek Kaye/Bassman for expert counsel. Candidates also enlist our service for career enhancing opportunities in outstanding colleges and schools nationwide.

Our team is comprised of education industry specialists with over 20 years of administrative, corporate, and campus based experience. We recruit horizontally and vertically within the education community on a national basis. We specialize at all levels including Admissions, Administrative, Financial Assistance, Career Services, and Academic Department Leadership and staff.

Through the flexibility of our Client Focused Search® approach, which provides proper alignment of expectations based on the service level and urgency our client requires, and our Market Mastery model of proactively developing candidate relationships in core functional disciplines ahead of need, Kaye/Bassman's Higher Education Practice has the experience, process and tools to help our clients tap into the strategic leadership and tactical talent they need.
