Kaye/Bassman is one of the few search firms in the nation with a practice devoted exclusively to healthcare finance & executive leadership. The unique nature of healthcare requires a distinct and often elusive skill set. We understand and excel at identifying, attracting and landing professionals with the skills necessary to thrive in the healthcare environment. We succeed by focusing on those critical areas of healthcare including leadership, finance, accounting, revenue cycle and patient financial services.

Serving both for-profit and non-profit organizations, our Healthcare Finance & Executive Leadership Practice is national in scope. We have successfully placed Chief Executive Officers, Chief Financial Officers, Chief Operational Officers, Controllers and Patient Financial Services professionals at the corporate, divisional and facility levels. Our clients are primarily service providers. Parent companies range from start-ups, small community hospitals and physician practice groups. We also partner with ambulatory surgery centers through publicly traded corporations and leadership at 1,000+ bed hospitals.

Like many of our clients, we are specialists. We believe that doing one thing extremely well better serves our clients and candidates versus trying to be all things to all people. Our specialization allows us to know the healthcare market better than anyone else.
