Kaye Bassman International's Healthcare Sales and Consulting practice recruits and places healthcare professionals on a national basis in various capacities from mid-level positions to leadership roles. We place sales, consulting and operations experienced professionals within Revenue Cycle, Reimbursement, Audit, Compliance, Data, Analytics, Population Health and Patient Engagement. We can be a professional resource to you no matter where your critical hiring need may be.

We engage in search solely with third party entities, vendors, consulting firms, and the like, that serve the national provider, payer, and physician practice management marketplace.

A direct result of our recruiting efforts and the placement of quantifiable talent with select organizations with whom we engage in search is the multiple benefits our clients derive from the talent they bring onboard. We drive our clients' mission to uncover hidden financial opportunities, improve productivity, and increase profits. The healthcare professionals we place readily offer cost effective and creative solutions in the capture, billing and collection of healthcare revenue nationally.
