RECRUITING DYNAMIC COLLEGE ATHLETICS LEADERS

Kaye/Bassman's Sports & Intercollegiate Athletics Leadership Practice specializes in identifying, recruiting, and advising senior leaders who shape the future of college athletics and recreation. We partner with institutions seeking college sports leaders who can navigate today's evolving higher education landscape while strengthening the institutional mission, competitive performance, and the student-athlete experience—particularly in complex or high-visibility departments and programs.

With deep, firsthand experience across NCAA Division II and Division III athletics and recreation, our team delivers more than successful searches—we provide strategic consultation, program evaluation, and leadership assessment tailored to each institution. We collaborate closely on every engagement to bring a distinctive blend of professional sports, collegiate athletics, and executive advisory experience to each search.
