Banking

For over 25 years, the Banking Search Practice has successfully placed candidates in a broad spectrum of positions on a national and international basis. Kaye/Bassman's clients range from some of the most recognized mega-organizations in the industry to more local, community bank environments. Our search consultants have the expertise, industry contacts, client knowledge and credibility expected by top-tiered financial organizations. We have completed hundreds of searches ranging from Analyst to President and Chief Executive Officer. Our reach extends to corporate, divisional and branch levels. Kaye/Bassman has an impeccable track record and reputation in the banking community. We are a proven source for superior banking talent and innovative human resource solutions.

Our ability to quickly mobilize and execute multiple-position staffing initiatives sets us apart from others in the search industry. The vast majority of our business is from repeat clients or referrals through those clients. The Kaye/Bassman Banking team partners with clients for the long-term, and our relationship does not end when we conclude an assignment. Value added services we provide on an on-going basis include briefing clients on new market/industry developments, benchmark compensation surveys, marketing and networking opportunities, and retention issues.
